A Client's testimonial:

"Mr. Cousin provided me with a truly outstanding service. In just a few sessions he helped me analyze my personality and re-define goals for the future of my career. Together we greatly improved the presentation of my resume, resulting in increased interest from recruitment companies. His hands-on approach helped me identify my weaknesses and together we found ways to fill-in the gaps. But above all, he helped me regain trust in myself. I would recommend his service to anyone wishing to reflect on their career."
